

QUESTIONS CHILDREN ASK

1. DIDN'T I SEE YOU ON TV? (Note: Do not repeat this question.)

Someone asked my mom if I was on TV the other day? Nope! I haven't been on TV... maybe one day when I'm a famous wheelchair basketball player or a famous sportscaster!

I know I like seeing other wheelchair users on TV because it lets everyone see that we are a part of society just like anybody else and it just means we get around in a different way from most other people. When people can see that I'm pretty much the same as anyone else on the inside, then they treat me pretty regular—which is great, 'cause that's what I am. Regular old, Mark Riley, video-game champ, wheelchair user, basketball player, and all around awesome guy!
